Referring Doctor: _____

-Formerly known as Indy Orthodontist by Dr. Peter Chapman-

Your first orthodontic appointment will consist of a careful examination. After records are taken we will discuss any orthodontic issues that may be present, treatment options, timing, and finances.

Every patient's orthodontic needs are different and treatment will be tailored specifically to you. Our mission is to provide a seamless educational experience and treatment that will provide value throughout you or your child's lifetime. We look forward to meeting you and your family!
